

A close-up photograph of two hands clasped together, resting on a red and white checkered tablecloth. The hands are positioned in the center of the frame, with the fingers interlaced. The background is slightly blurred, showing a person's arm in a light blue sleeve and a dark jacket. The overall mood is one of solidarity and support.

Meeting in the middle

Shaping public narratives on migration

21 January 2020

9.00-10.30

Room Panecillo 4- Centro de
Convenciones Metropolitano
(Quito)

Program:

Opening remarks

Mr. Felipe González - UN Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants

Unravelling the anti-migrant discourse

Pablo Andrés Rivero - LAC Regional Policy & Narratives Lead (Oxfam)

Eva Garzón - Global Displacement Lead (Oxfam)

Impact of narratives on migrant women's rights

Maria-Noel Vaeza - Regional Director, Americas & Caribbean (UN Women)

Paola Cymant - Consultant (Women in Migration Network)

The role of disinformation in shaping the public debate

Yuly Jara - Fact-checking journalist (Maldita.es)

Albor Rodríguez - Journalist (La Vida de Nos)

José María León - Journalist (GK)

Q&A and discussion

